SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE
COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

NANCY R. HEINEN AND FRED D.
ANDERSON,

Defendants.

Case No. C-07-2214-JF

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE
ORDER

(MODIFIED BY THE COURT)

1           1.     PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2           Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of
 3 confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public
 4 disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation would be warranted.
 5 Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated
 6 Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on 7 all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords extends only to the 8 limited information or items that are entitled under the applicable legal principles to treatment as 9 confidential. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 10, below, that this
 10 Stipulated Protective Order does not create an entitlement or an obligation to file confidential
 11 information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and 12 reflects the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file
 13 material under seal.

14
 15           2.     DEFINITIONS

16           2.1     Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors,
 17 employees, consultants, retained experts, and outside counsel (and their support staff).

18           2.2     Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of 19 the medium or manner generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, 20 testimony, transcripts, or tangible things) that are produced or generated in disclosures or 21 responses to discovery in this matter.

22           2.3     "Confidential" Information or Items: information (regardless of how 23 generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under standards
 24 developed under F.R.Civ.P. 26(c).

25           2.4     "Highly Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" Information or Items:
 26 extremely sensitive "Confidential Information or Items" whose disclosure to another Party or 27 nonparty would create a substantial risk of serious injury that could not be avoided by less
 28 restrictive means.

1                   2.5    Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material
2 from a Producing Party.

3                   2.6    Producing Party: a Party or non-party that produces Disclosure or 4 Discovery Material in this action.

5                   2.7    Designating Party: a Party or non-party that designates information or 6 items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “Confidential” or “Highly
7 Confidential — Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

8                   2.8    Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated 9 as “Confidential” or as “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

10                  2.9    Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a Party but who are 11 retained to represent or advise a Party in this action.

12                  2.10   House Counsel: attorneys and accountants who are employees of a Party.

13                  2.11   Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel and House Counsel (as well 14 as their support staffs).

15                  2.12   Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter
16 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert
17 witness or as a consultant in this action and who is not a past or a current employee of a Party or 18 of a competitor of a Party’s and who, at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an 19 employee of a Party or a competitor of a Party’s. This definition includes a professional jury or 20 trial consultant retained in connection with this litigation.

21                  2.13   Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support
22 services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or demonstrations; 23 organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and their employees and 24 subcontractors.

25
26           3.    SCOPE

27           The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material
28 (as defined above), but also any information copied or extracted therefrom, as well as all copies,

1 excerpts, summaries, or compilations thereof, plus testimony, conversations, or presentations by
2 parties or counsel to or in court or in other settings that might reveal Protected Material.

4 4. DURATION

5 Even after the termination of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this
6 Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order
7 otherwise directs. For a period of six months after the final termination of this action, this
8 court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this protective order.

9 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

10 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each
11 Party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take 12 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
13 standards. A Designating Party must take care to designate for protection only those parts of 14 material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions 15 of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are 16 not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

17 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that 18 are shown to be clearly unjustified, or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 19 unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process, or to impose unnecessary
20 expenses and burdens on other parties), expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

21 If it comes to a Party's or a non-party's attention that information or items that it
22 designated for protection do not qualify for protection at all, or do not qualify for the level of 23 protection initially asserted, that Party or non-party must promptly notify all other parties that it is 24 withdrawing the mistaken designation.

25 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 26 Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a), below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered,
27 material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the 28 material is disclosed or produced.

1 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

2 (a) for information in documentary form (apart from transcripts of
3 depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend
4 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” at the top
5 of each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a
6 page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected
7 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each
8 portion, the level of protection being asserted (either “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY
9 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”).

10 A Party or non-party that makes original documents or materials available
11 for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated
12 which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the 13 designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed “HIGHLY 14 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” After the inspecting Party has identified the 15 documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents,
16 or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order, then, before producing the specified
17 documents, the Producing Party must affix the appropriate legend (“CONFIDENTIAL” or 18 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”) at the top of each page that 19 contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 20 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 21 appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level of protection
22 being asserted (either “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’
23 EYES ONLY”).

24 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial
25 proceedings, that the Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the testimony identify on the 26 record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected testimony,
27 and further specify any portions of the testimony that qualify as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
28 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” When it is impractical to identify separately each portion of

1 testimony that is entitled to protection, and when it appears that substantial portions of the 2 testimony may qualify for protection, the Party or non-party that sponsors, offers, or gives the 3 testimony may invoke on the record (before the deposition or proceeding is concluded) a right to 4 have up to 20 days to identify the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is 5 sought and to specify the level of protection being asserted (“CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY 6 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”). Only those portions of the testimony that
7 are appropriately designated for protection within the 20 days shall be covered by the provisions
8 of this Stipulated Protective Order.

9 Transcript pages containing Protected Material must be separately bound
10 by the court reporter, who must affix to the top of each such page the legend “CONFIDENTIAL”
11 or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” as instructed by the Party or 12 nonparty offering or sponsoring the witness or presenting the testimony.

13 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary, and for 14 any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the 15 container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL”
16 or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” If only portions of the 17 information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall 18 identify the protected portions, specifying whether they qualify as “Confidential” or as “Highly 19 Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

20 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure
21 to designate qualified information or items as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential –
22 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure
23 protection under this Order for such material. If material is appropriately designated as 24 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” after the material was initially
25 produced, the Receiving Party, on timely notification of the designation, must make reasonable
26 efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

1           6.     CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

2           6.1     Timing of Challenges. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's
3 confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable substantial unfairness, unnecessary
4 economic burdens, or a later significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not
5 waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge
6 promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

7           6.2     Meet and Confer. A Party that elects to initiate a challenge to a Designating
8 Party's confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must begin the process by 9 conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient)
10 with counsel for the Designating Party. In conferring, the challenging Party must explain the basis
11 for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating
12 Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no
13 change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A challenging
14 Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet
15 and confer process first.

16           6.3     Judicial Intervention. A Party that elects to press a challenge to a
17 confidentiality designation after considering the justification offered by the Designating Party
18 may file and serve a motion under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 19 79-5, if applicable) that identifies the challenged material and sets forth in detail the basis for the 20 challenge. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration that affirms that 21 the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the preceding
22 paragraph and that sets forth with specificity the justification for the confidentiality designation
23 that was given by the Designating Party in the meet and confer dialogue.

24           The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 25 Designating Party. Until the court rules on the challenge, all parties shall continue to afford the 26 material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's 27 designation.
28

1           7.     ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

2                     7.1     Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is
3 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for 4 prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be
5 disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order.
6 When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of 7 section 11, below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

8                     Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 9 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under 10 this Order.

11                    7.2     Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise
12 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may 13 disclose any information or item designated CONFIDENTIAL only to:

14                             (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of record in this action, as well
15 as employees, contract attorneys, consultants and/or investigators for said Counsel to whom it is
16 reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

17                             (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the 18 Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have 19 signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

20                             (c) experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 21 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be 22 Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

23                             (d) the Court and its personnel;

24                             (e) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom
25 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation ;

26                             (f) during their depositions or during an informal interview, witnesses in
27 the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony
28 or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court

1 reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective
2 Order.

3 (g) the author or recipient of the document or the original source of the
4 information.

5 7.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES
6 ONLY” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by 7 the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 8 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” only to:

9 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of record in this action, as well
10 as employees, contract attorneys, consultants and/or investigators for said Counsel to whom it is
11 reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

12 (b) House Counsel of a Receiving Party (1) who has no involvement in 13 competitive decision-making, (2) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation,
14 and (3) who has signed the “Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order” (Exhibit A);

15 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) (1) to whom disclosure is reasonably
16 necessary for this litigation, (2) who have signed the “Agreement to Be Bound by Protective 17 Order” (Exhibit A), and (3) as to whom the procedures set forth in paragraph 7.4, below, have 18 been followed;

19 (d) the Court and its personnel;

20 (e) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom
21 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

22 (f) during their depositions or during an informal interview, witnesses in
23 the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony
24 or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court
25 reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective
26 Order.

27 (g) the author or recipient of the document or the original source of the
28 information.

1                   7.4    Procedures for Approving Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
2    ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or Items to “Experts”.

3                   (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed in writing by the 4    Designating Party, a Party that seeks to disclose to an “Expert” (as defined in this Order) any
5    information or item that has been designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’
6    EYES ONLY” first must make a written request to the Designating Party that (1) identifies the 7    specific HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information that the Receiving Party seeks permission to
8    disclose to the Expert, (2) sets forth the full name of the Expert and the city and state of his or her
9    primary residence, (3) attaches a copy of the Expert’s current resume, (4) identifies the Expert’s
10   current employer(s), (5) identifies each person or entity from whom the Expert has received
11   compensation for work in his or her areas of expertise or to whom the expert has provided 12   professional services at any time during the preceding five years, and (6) identifies (by name and 13   number of the case, filing date, and location of court) any litigation in connection with which the 14   Expert has provided any professional services during the preceding five years.

15                  (b) A Party that makes a request and provides the information specified in 16   the preceding paragraph may disclose the subject Protected Material to the identified Expert
17   unless, within seven court days of delivering the request, the Party receives a written objection
18   from the Designating Party. Any such objection must set forth in detail the grounds on which it is 19   based.

20                  (c) A Party that receives a timely written objection must meet and confer
21   with the Designating Party (through direct voice to voice dialogue) to try to resolve the matter by 22   agreement. If no agreement is reached, the Party seeking to make the disclosure to the Expert may 23   file a motion as provided in Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if 24   applicable) seeking permission from the court to do so. Any such motion must describe the 25   circumstances with specificity, set forth in detail the reasons for which the disclosure to the 26   Expert is reasonably necessary, assess the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail and 27   suggest any additional means that might be used to reduce that risk. In addition, any such motion
28   must be accompanied by a competent declaration in which the movant describes the parties’

1 efforts to resolve the matter by agreement (i.e., the extent and the content of the meet and confer
2 discussions) and sets forth the reasons advanced by the Designating Party for its refusal to
3 approve the disclosure.

4 In any such proceeding the Designating Party opposing disclosure to the 5 Expert shall bear the burden of proving that the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail
6 (under the safeguards proposed) outweighs the Receiving Party's need to disclose the Protected
7 Material to its Expert.

8 7.5 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" and "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
9 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" Information or Items by the Securities and Exchange
10 Commission.

11 Nothing in this stipulation and order shall be construed to limit or otherwise abrogate the 12 Securities and Commission's ("Commission") ability to make its files available to other
13 governmental agencies, as described in the "Routine Uses of Information" section of SEC Form
14 1662, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The Commission is free to disclose
15 "CONFIDENTIAL" and "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY"
16 Information or Items in a manner consistent with the "Routine Uses of Information" section of 17 SEC Form 1662 without notifying or seeking permission from the Designating Party.

18
19 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 20 OTHER LITIGATION.

21 If a Receiving Party is served with a subpoena or an order issued in other litigation that 22 would compel disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 23 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," the 24 Receiving Party must so notify the Designating Party, in writing (by fax, if possible) immediately
25 and in no event more than three court days after receiving the subpoena or order. Such 26 notification must include a copy of the subpoena or court order.

27 The Receiving Party also must immediately inform in writing the Party who caused the 28 subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all the material covered by the subpoena or order is the subject of this Protective Order. In addition, the Receiving Party must deliver a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order promptly to the Party in the other action that caused the subpoena or order to issue.

The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the existence of this Protective Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an opportunity to try to protect its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued. The Designating Party shall bear the burdens and the expenses of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

9. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL.

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

10. FILING PROTECTED MATERIAL

Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. When a Party seeks to file under seal any Protected Material, the parties must comply with all provisions of including Civ. L.R. 79-5(d). ~~any Party seeks to file under seal any Protected Material, the parties must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. If the Party wishing to file or refer to a document that has been designated as Protected Material does not agree that the material is properly sealable under Civil Local Rule 79-5, the Party must still comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5(d) but may indicate in the Administrative Motion for a sealing order that the Party does not believe the material is sealable. Within five (5) days thereafter, the Designating Party must file with the Court a~~

~~declaration establishing that the Protected Material is sealable, and must lodge a narrowly tailored proposed sealing order, or must withdraw the designation of confidentiality. If the Designating Party does not file its responsive declaration as required herein and as required by Civil Local Rule 79-5(d), the document or proposed filing will be made part of the public record.~~

11. FINAL DISPOSITION

Unless otherwise ordered or agreed in writing by the Producing Party, within sixty days after the final termination of this action, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other form of reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. With permission in writing from the Designating Party, the Receiving Party may destroy some or all of the Protected Material instead of returning it. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the sixty day deadline that identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and that affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or other forms of reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence or attorney work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION), above.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or

1 producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective
2 Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of 3 the material covered by this Protective Order.

EXHIBIT A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

I, _____ [print or type full name], of _____ [print or type full address], declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the Northern District of California on _____ in the case of Securities and Exchange Commission v. Heinen et al., C-07-2214 (JF). I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Order. I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action. I hereby appoint _____ [print or type full name] of _____ [print or type full address and telephone number] as my California agent for service of process in connection with this action or any proceedings related to enforcement of this Stipulated Protective Order.

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER: EXHIBIT B

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
Washington, D.C. 20549

Supplemental Information for Persons Requested to Supply
Information Voluntarily or Directed to Supply Information
Pursuant to a Commission Subpoena

False Statements and Documents

Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code provides as follows:

Whoever, in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States knowingly and willfully falsifies, conceals or covers up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact, or makes any false, fictitious or fraudulent statements or representations, or makes or uses any false writing or document knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or entry, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

Testimony

If your testimony is taken, you should be aware of the following:

1. Record. Your testimony will be transcribed by a reporter. If you desire to go off the record, please indicate this to the Commission employee taking your testimony, who will determine whether to grant your request. The reporter will not go off the record at your, or your counsel's, direction.
2. Counsel. You have the right to be accompanied, represented and advised by counsel of your choice. Your counsel may advise you before, during and after your testimony; question you briefly at the conclusion of your testimony to clarify any of the answers you give during testimony; and make summary notes during your testimony solely for your use. If you are accompanied by counsel, you may consult privately.

If you are not accompanied by counsel, please advise the Commission employee taking your testimony whenever during your testimony you desire to be accompanied, represented and advised by counsel. Your testimony will be adjourned to afford you the opportunity to arrange to do so.

You may be represented by counsel who also represents other persons involved in the Commission's investigation. This multiple representation, however, presents a potential conflict of interest if one client's interests are or may be adverse to another's. If you are represented by counsel who also represents other persons involved in the investigation, the Commission will assume that you and counsel have discussed and resolved all issues concerning possible conflicts of interest. The choice of counsel, and the responsibility for that choice, is yours.

3. Transcript Availability. Rule 6 of the Commission's Rules Relating to Investigations, 17 CFR 203.6, states:

A person who has submitted documentary evidence or testimony in a formal investigative proceeding shall be entitled, upon written request, to procure a copy of his documentary evidence or a transcript of his testimony on payment of the appropriate fees: Provided, however, That in a nonpublic formal investigative proceeding the Commission may for good cause deny such request. In any event, any witness, upon proper identification, shall have the right to inspect the official transcript of the witness' own testimony.

If you wish to purchase a copy of the transcript of your testimony, the reporter will provide you with a copy of the appropriate form. Persons requested to supply information voluntarily will be allowed the rights provided by this rule.

4. Perjury. Section 1621 of Title 18 of the United States Code provides as follows:

Whoever . . . having taken an oath before a competent tribunal, officer, or person, in any case in which a law of the United States authorizes an oath to be administered, that he will testify, declare, depose, or certify truly .... willfully and contrary to such oath states or subscribes any material matter which he does not believe to be true... is guilty of perjury and shall, except as otherwise expressly provided by law, be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years or both . . . .

5. Fifth Amendment and Voluntary Testimony. Information you give may be used against you in any federal, state, local or foreign administrative, civil or criminal proceeding brought by the Commission or any other agency.

You may refuse, in accordance with the rights guaranteed to you by the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, to give any information that may tend to incriminate you or subject you to fine, penalty or forfeiture.

If your testimony is not pursuant to subpoena, your appearance to testify is voluntary, you need not answer any question, and you may leave whenever you wish. Your cooperation is, however, appreciated.

6. Formal Order Availability. If the Commission has issued a formal order of investigation, it will be shown to you during your testimony, at your request. If you desire a copy of the formal order, please make your request in writing.

Submissions and Settlements

Rule 5(c) of the Commission's Rules on Informal and Other Procedures, 17 CFR 202.5(c), states:

Persons who become involved in . . . investigations may, on their own initiative, submit a written statement to the Commission setting forth their interests and position in regard to the subject matter of the investigation. Upon request, the staff, in its discretion, may advise such persons of the general nature of the investigation, including the indicated violations as they pertain to them, and the amount of time that may be available for preparing and submitting a statement prior to the presentation of a staff recommendation to the Commission for the commencement of an administrative or injunction proceeding. Submissions by interested persons should be forwarded to the appropriate Division Director, Regional Director, or District Administrator with a copy to the staff members conducting the investigation and should be clearly referenced to the specific investigation to which they relate. In the event a recommendation for the commencement of an enforcement proceeding is presented by the staff, any submissions by interested persons will be forwarded to the Commission in conjunction with the staff memorandum.

The staff of the Commission routinely seeks to introduce submissions made pursuant to Rule 5(c) as evidence in Commission enforcement proceedings, when the staff deems appropriate.

Rule 5(f) of the Commission's Rules on Informal and Other Procedures, 17 CFR 202.5(f), states:

In the course of the Commission's investigations, civil lawsuits, and administrative proceedings, the staff, with appropriate authorization, may discuss with persons involved the disposition of such matters by consent, by settlement, or in some other manner. It is the policy of the Commission, however, that the disposition of any such matter may not, expressly or impliedly, extend to any criminal charges that have been, or may be, brought against any such person or any recommendation with respect thereto. Accordingly, any person involved in an enforcement matter before the Commission who consents, or agrees to consent, to any judgment or order does so solely for the purpose of resolving the claims against him in that investigative, civil, or administrative matter and not for the purpose of resolving any criminal charges that have been, or might be, brought against him. This policy reflects the fact that neither the Commission nor its staff has the authority or responsibility for instituting, conducting, settling, or otherwise disposing of criminal proceedings. That authority and responsibility are vested in the Attorney General and representatives of the Department of Justice.

Freedom of Information Act

The Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552 (the "FOIA"), generally provides for disclosure of information to the public. Rule 83 of the Commission's Rules on Information and Requests, 17 CFR 200.83, provides a procedure by which a person can make a written request that information submitted to the Commission not be disclosed under the FOIA. That rule states that no determination as to the validity of such a request will be made until a request for disclosure of the information under the FOIA is received. Accordingly, no response to a request that information not be disclosed under the FOIA is necessary or will be given until a request for disclosure under the FOIA is received. If you desire an acknowledgment of receipt of your written request that information not be disclosed under the FOIA, please provide a duplicate request, together with a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Authority for Solicitation of Information

Persons Directed to Supply Information Pursuant to Subpoena. The authority for requiring production of information is set forth in the subpoena. Disclosure of the information to the Commission is mandatory, subject to the valid assertion of any legal right or privilege you might have.

Persons Requested to Supply Information Voluntarily. One or more of the following provisions authorizes the Commission to solicit the information requested: Sections 19 and/or 20 of the Securities Act of 1933; Section 21 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; Section 321 of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939; Section 42 of the Investment Company Act of 1940; Section 209 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940; and 17 CFR 202.5. Disclosure of the requested information to the Commission is voluntary on your part.

Effect of Not Supplying Information

Persons Directed to Supply Information Pursuant to Subpoena. If you fail to comply with the subpoena, the Commission may seek a court order requiring you to do so. If such an order is obtained and you thereafter fail to supply the information, you may be subject to civil and/or criminal sanctions for contempt of court. In addition, if the subpoena was issued pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Investment Company Act of 1940, and/or the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and if you, without just cause, fail or refuse to attend and testify, or to answer any lawful inquiry, or to produce books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records in compliance with the subpoena, you may be found guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for a term of not more than one year, or both.

Persons Requested to Supply Information Voluntarily. There are no direct sanctions and thus no direct effects for failing to provide all or any part of the requested information.

Principal Uses of Information

The Commission's principal purpose in soliciting the information is to gather facts in order to determine whether any person has violated, is violating, or is about to violate any provision of the federal securities laws or rules for which the Commission has enforcement authority, such as rules of securities exchanges and the rules of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board. Facts developed may, however, constitute violations of other laws or rules. Information provided may be used in Commission and other agency enforcement proceedings. Unless the Commission or its staff explicitly agrees to the contrary in writing, you should not assume that the Commission or its staff acquiesces in, accedes to, or concurs or agrees with, any position, condition, request, reservation of right, understanding, or any other statement that purports, or may be deemed, to be or to reflect a limitation upon the Commission's receipt, use, disposition, transfer, or retention, in accordance with applicable law, of information provided.

Routine Uses of Information

The Commission often makes its files available to other governmental agencies, particularly United States Attorneys and state prosecutors. There is a likelihood that information supplied by you will be made available to such agencies where appropriate. Whether or not the Commission makes its files available to other governmental agencies is, in general, a confidential matter between the Commission and such other governmental agencies.

Set forth below is a list of the routine uses which may be made of the information furnished.

1. To coordinate law enforcement activities between the SEC and other federal, state, local or foreign law enforcement agencies, securities self-regulatory organizations, and foreign securities authorities.
2. By SEC personnel for purposes of investigating possible violations of, or to conduct investigations authorized by, the federal securities laws.
3. Where there is an indication of a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, or local, a foreign governmental authority or foreign securities authority, or a securities self-regulatory organization charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.
4. In any proceeding where the federal securities laws are in issue or in which the Commission, or past or present members of its staff, is a party or otherwise involved in an official capacity.
5. To a federal, state, local or foreign governmental authority or foreign securities authority maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to an agency decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.
6. To a federal, state, local or foreign governmental authority or foreign securities authority, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.
7. In connection with proceedings by the Commission pursuant to Rule 102(e) of its Rules of Practice, 17 CFR 201.102(e).

8. When considered appropriate, records in this system may be disclosed to a bar association, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, a state accountancy board or other federal, state, local or foreign licensing or oversight authority, foreign securities authority, or professional association or self-regulatory authority performing similar functions, for possible disciplinary or other action.

9. In connection with investigations or disciplinary proceedings by a state securities regulatory authority, a foreign securities authority, or by a self-regulatory organization involving one or more of its members.

10. As a data source for management information for production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained or for related personnel management functions or manpower studies, and to respond to general requests for statistical information (without personal identification of individuals) under the Freedom of Information Act or to locate specific individuals for personnel research or other personnel management functions.

11. In connection with their regulatory and enforcement responsibilities mandated by the federal securities laws (as defined in Section 3(a)(47) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(47)), or state or foreign laws regulating securities or other related matters, records may be disclosed to national securities associations that are registered with the Commission, the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board, the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, the federal banking authorities, including but not limited to, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Comptroller of the Currency, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, state securities regulatory or law enforcement agencies or organizations, or regulatory law enforcement agencies of a foreign government, or foreign securities authority.

12. To any trustee, receiver, master, special counsel, or other individual or entity that is appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction or as a result of an agreement between the parties in connection with litigation or administrative proceedings involving allegations of violations of the federal securities laws (as defined in Section 3(a)(47) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(47)) or the Commission's Rules of Practice, 17 CFR 202.100 - 900, or otherwise, where such trustee, receiver, master, special counsel or other individual or entity is specifically designated to perform particular functions with respect to, or as a result of, the pending action or proceeding or in connection with the administration and enforcement by the Commission of the federal securities laws or the Commission's Rules of Practice.

13. To any persons during the course of any inquiry or investigation conducted by the Commission's staff, or in connection with civil litigation, if the staff has reason to believe that the person to whom the record is disclosed may have further information about the matters related therein, and those matters appeared to be relevant at the time to the subject matter of the inquiry.

14. To any person with whom the Commission contracts to reproduce, by typing, photocopy or other means, any record within this system for use by the Commission and its staff in connection with their official duties or to any person who is utilized by the Commission to perform clerical or stenographic functions relating to the official business of the Commission.

15. Inclusion in reports published by the Commission pursuant to authority granted in the federal securities laws (as defined in Section 3(a)(47) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(47)).

16. To members of advisory committees that are created by the Commission or by the Congress to render advice and recommendations to the Commission or to the Congress, to be used solely in connection with their official designated functions.

17. To any person who is or has agreed to be subject to the Commission's Rules of Conduct, 17 CFR 200.735-1 to 735-18, and who assists in the investigation by the Commission of possible violations of federal securities laws (as defined in Section 3(a)(47) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(47)), in the preparation or conduct of enforcement actions brought by the Commission for such violations, or otherwise in connection with the Commission's enforcement or regulatory functions under the federal securities laws.

18. Disclosure may be made to a Congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the Congressional office made at the request of that individual.

19. To respond to inquiries from Members of Congress, the press and the public which relate to specific matters that the Commission has investigated and to matters under the Commission's jurisdiction.

20. To prepare and publish information relating to violations of the federal securities laws as provided in 15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(47)), as amended.

21. To respond to subpoenas in any litigation or other proceeding.

22. To a trustee in bankruptcy.

23. To any governmental agency, governmental or private collection agent, consumer reporting agency or commercial reporting agency, governmental or private employer of a debtor, or any other person, for collection, including collection by administrative offset, federal salary offset, tax refund offset, or administrative wage garnishment, of amounts owed as a result of Commission civil or administrative proceedings.

Small Business Owners: The SEC always welcomes comments on how it can better assist small businesses. If you have comments about the SEC's enforcement of the securities laws, please contact the Office of Chief Counsel in the SEC's Division of Enforcement at 202-942-4530 or the SEC's Small Business Ombudsman at 202-942-2950. If you would prefer to comment to someone outside of the SEC, you can contact the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Ombudsman at <http://www.sba.gov/ombudsman> or toll free at 888-REG-FAIR. The Ombudsman's office receives comments from small businesses and annually evaluates federal agency enforcement activities for their responsiveness to the special needs of small business.
